H. F. PIERATT, D. S.

Joseph P. Rose and family, Chas. Sample and family and a number of other Lacy creek folks attended conference and quarterly meeting here last week.

The Mrs. Godsey here referred to is the wife of our young friend, Henry L. Godsey, and the probability is that he and his wife will soon visit Hazel Green.

The Hoffman-Pieratt Insurance Co., is one of the new firms in the field, and is composed of good material for the business, viz: Albert Hoffman, one of the oldest if not the oldest insurance man in the state, his son, who was born an insurance agent, and Willie H. Pieratt, of our town, who has acquired good knowledge of the business within the last six months and bids fair to prove the peer of any who write insurance. Willie has an arrangement with the Hoffmans by which he is to handle the business in five of our counties, viz: Wolfe, Morgan, Menefee, Lee and Ma... and the good people of these counties will find that he is thoroughly reliable. He is a young man of high moral character, strict integrity and business enterprise, and with the Hoffmans to direct, and he to do there is no telling how much insurance they will write. When you want your house, barn, etc., etc. insured, see or write Willie Pieratt and give him the preference.

Floyd Barker, who was sent up for two years from this county in November, 1897, for robbery, together with Kelly Jordan, was released on Sunday morning last from the Frankfort penitentiary, his good time amounting to six months less 12 days. He says he was treated well during the entire time, and never had a cross word from any of the officials. Upon his release he was given $5.75 to pay his expenses home and a new suit of clothes. While the treatment was good he says he thinks he will so conduct himself in future as to steer clear of a similar sentence, and if possible redeem his character. The Jordan boy was released at the same time.

Mrs. Dr. Stewart, a visitor at the spring and some others spent an hour or so one day last week in repairing the road on rocky hill with a view to making that thoroughfare at least passable. The overseer of that road should do what he can to aid in the good work, and hope ere another issue of this paper to hear that he has done his duty in the premises and relieved the distress of the people, who travel over that road, especially the ladies. When lady visitors to our county find it necessary to work the roads that their lives may not be endangered it is about time the officials take a hand.

E. F. Cecil, one of our most progressive farmers, tells us that the wheat crop will be between 40 and 50 per cent short. Two or three weeks ago it was thought wheat would harvest a full crop, but rust, mildew, wet weather, etc., have damaged it to the extent mentioned, at least. Forward oats are looking well, but late oats does not indicate a good yield. Corn is good and grass was never better.

The Red River Association of Baptists will hold a meeting at the Bill Davis school house next Sunday and have their annual foot-washing. There will also be dinner on the ground, and a grand time is anticipated. Several of our citizens, including the colored contingent, have made arrangements to go, and are looking forward to a very enjoyable time. The Davis schoolhouse is on the State Road fork of Red river, about six miles from here.

Drs. Taulbee and Nickell, assisted by Dr. A. H. Stewart, of Richmond, Ky., amputated the right hand of Carl Sebastian, the little son of Squire Sebastian, of Daysboro, who had his hand lacerated from the explosion of a dynamite cap 84 days since. An effort was made to save the hand, but on account of septic poison and hemorrhage of the palmar arch artery, amputation was absolutely necessary.

Misses Lillian Evans and Ava Swango, and E. O. Taulbee, of this place, and S. H. Nickell, of Salem, Morgan county, were each awarded first class certificates by the board of examiners at Campton last week. They were all students of Hazel Green academy, and Messrs Nickell and Taulbee are graduates.

We would call attention to the "Alumni Basket" which we publish in full. The "Basket" is a most creditable one indeed; the language and thought to be found in it is of highest order and will interest all that appreciate merit. Miss Lula Kash was its editress which explains a great deal.

South Coldiron says Willie Swango has the best crop of wheat ever raised in this country. He had to haul it out of the field before he could find room to shock it, and but for the fact that he pastured it he might have been compelled to lease a piece of ground upon which to shock it.

The Sales of Hood's Sarsaparilla are the largest in the world because the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla are wonderful, perfect, permanent.

Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. 25c.

Something unusually fine in the way of color-printing will be found in Truth's reproductions in the June number, of some of Mr. Bruce Crane's beautiful landscapes. These pictures are taken direct from the original paintings, and are marvelously faithful reproductions.

Oliver Pratt and little son, Carl, called at the office Friday and renewed for THE HERALD, Courier-Journal and Farm Journal. With a thousand subscribers like Mr. Pratt, we could and would make THE HERALD the best paper in Kentucky.

Harry Rosland's painting, "A Penny Short," a reproduction of which, in colors, is given as a supplement with the June number of Truth, is a fine example of this artist's work in the delineation of negro character.

John M. Rose is attending the Mt. Sterling court.

E. T. Kash has been appointed postmaster at Toliaer, Wolfe county.

G. B. Swango was the only one to attend the Democratic state convention from this place.

Our paper is one day late this week because of the fact that we waited to hear all we could of the organization of the convention at Louisville yesterday.

J. W. Cravens, of McCausey, came up Saturday, and on Sunday he and Mrs. Nannie Kash attended meeting at Old Grassy church, and had "dinner on the ground."

TAKE ONLY the best when you need a medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier, nerve and stomach tonic. Get HOOD'S.

Bill Faulkner last week opened a 30-inch vein of coal on the farm of Prof. W. H. Cord. But there is a seven inch vein of slate in the center of the coal, which he thinks will run out.

Joe P. Rose, W. T. Tyler, J. P. Miller and J. F. Vansant were chosen delegates to attend the annual conference. Alternates—J. B. Cecil, of Ezel, and Prof. H. H. Harris, of Beattyville.

Born, to the wife of Shade Wilson, of Salem, on the 20th inst., a boy. Dr. Nickell officiated as peace maker, and says this youngster bids fair to prove true to the Republican faith.

W. W. and S. E. Hager, delegates to the state convention from Magoffin county passed through here Monday en route to Louisville. Magoffin instructed for Wilbur Hager for treasurer only.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell, of Mt. Sterling, and Rev. Mr. Gosby of Camargo, have been conducting an interesting meeting at the Methodist church since the adjournment of the Conference.

Mrs. Julia Henry, of Grassy, will please accept the thanks of the editor and his better-half for a mess of extra fine bunch beans—the first we have seen this year—and what we did to 'em was a plenty.

Mrs. Roe Day left Saturday morning for Mt. Sterling, and from there will go to Cincinnati to be with her husband, J. T. Day, who is under treatment at a sanitarium, near that place.

Don't forget that you can have the Courier-Journal or Dispatch and THE HERALD one year for only $1.00 cash in advance, and besides we will send you the Farm Journal until the end of the year 1893.

Wm. H. Cord will preach at Salem church on Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., and at the Christian church here at 8 p. m. His topics for these sermons will be: at Salem—"Our Gifts," and here—"What Saves Us?"

Quite an interesting letter from W. P. Norris, who edited the lately lamented Campton Banner, and who was subsequently a soldier in the Spanish-American war, is crowded out of this issue, but will appear next week.

Capt. Sample and wife, Miss Lula Sample, Willie Childers, and Mrs. Rob't Day, of Maytown, attended church here Sunday and were the guests of Mrs. E. N. Day; also, Misses Lucy and Ida Lyon and Miss Snodgrass, of Frenchburg.

A letter passed through the Hazel Green postoffice some time since bearing the following inscription:

Take me at a rapid rate
To Stillwater, Kentucky state;
In that office let me stay
Till Miss Mollie—takes me away.

The Farm Journal is cream, not skim-milk, and just the paper for the man who keeps cows. We give it for the balance of 1899, and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years to every subscriber to THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD who will pay a year ahead. Walk right up to the captain's office without delay.

Crock Coldiron says that one day last week he saw seven ground hogs playing on a point just a few yards distant from Camp Coldiron, near Glencairn, and succeeded in killing one of them, which he and George Spradling dressed and cooked. Arbury Brooks was an invited guest, and Crock says that he ate so much that he foundered and it settled in his eyes. Whether he foundered or no, it is a fact that Arbury is suffering with sore eyes.

Following is a list of the ministers in attendance at the district conference of the M. E. church, South, held here last week, together with their postoffice address: Julius Edwin Wright, Harrodsburg; R. H. Wightman, London; E. K. Pike, Livingston; Prof. C. C. Fisher, Millersburg; J. W. Mitchell, Mt. Sterling; F. M. Cosby, Camargo; S. M. Carrier, Clay City; Edward Allen, Irvine; S. W. Peoples, Jackson; H. O. Moore, Campton; W. T. Tyler, Frenchburg; W. B. Ragan, Preachersville; R. M. Lee, Hazel Green; Prof. D. W. Batson, Mintuse; J. J. Dickey, Manchester.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are due the people of Hazel Green and vicinity for the generous hospitality extended to this Conference during its session here, and that the pleasant memories we carry with us to our homes shall prompt us to pray for their prosperity and happiness.

Resolved, That we appreciate the hearty co-operation of the pastors of the Presbyterian and Christian churches with the pastor of the Methodist church in entertaining this body.

The farmers have felt some behind with their work, and are hiding in the weeds and sprouts in their cornfields owing to the wet weather a few days since.

The Mass Meeting Saturday.

Pursuant to the call of the County Chairman, the Democrats of Wolfe county met at Campton, Ky., Saturday, June 17, 1899, at 1 o'clock p. m. The meeting was called to order by E. T. Kash, County Chairman, and on motion, J. H. Stamper, Jr., was elected temporary chairman, and E. O. Taulbee was elected secretary and Jonas Vansant assistant secretary. On motion the chairman appointed J. A. Taulbee, A. D. Lykins, J. W. Congleton, A. H. Stamper, A. E. Byrd, W. B. Luff, J. P. Rose and H. N. Horton, committee on resolutions, who submitted the following report:

Resolved, That we the Democrats of Wolfe county endorse the platform as formulated at Chicago in 1896, and also pledge our support to the Hon. W. J. Bryan for president in 1900.

We recommend that the following Democrats be appointed to attend the Democratic Convention to be held in Louisville, June 21, 1899: A. H. Stamper, A. D. Lykins, J. W. Taulbee, Jas. F. Hanks, J. P. Rose, W. P. Bush, A. E. Byrd, W. B. Duff, and G. B. Swango and J. W. Congleton, and said delegates are instructed to cast the vote of Wolfe county in said convention as follows:

For Governor—P. W. Hardin.
For Secretary State—C. B. Hill.
For Treasurer—W. S. Hager.
For Auditor—John B. Chenault.
For Atty General—W. B. Fleming.

And to use all honorable means to secure their nomination, and said delegates to vote as a unit on all questions arising in said convention as a majority of the delegates present may determine.

JAS. H. STAMPER, Chairman.
E. O. SWANGO, Secretary.

Endorsed by E. T. Kash, Chr. Ex. Com. Wolfe county.

J. T. Day, who has been under treatment at a sanitarium in Cincinnati for some time, is now with his wife and daughter at Mt. Sterling.

A Dastardly Deed.

On last Saturday at Campton when F. N. Day went to the livery stable to get his buggy mare (where he had placed her that morning,) he found her standing with the right side of her head (or neck) in a profusion of blood, and upon examination found that some barbarous scoundrel had cut a gash about 3 or 4 inches long and to the bone.

Dr. J. A. Taulbee was immediately sent for and sewed the wound up, but it is a very ugly and yet may be a dangerous place.

"Brownie" as the little mare is called, is the pet of his wife and family. It certainly was a cowardly and brutal act.

Biggle Horse Book is as full of good sense as an egg is of meat. Its motto: "Always speak to a horse as you would to a gentleman" is the keynote of its treatment of the whole subject. There are twenty-five chapters including advice on feeding and watering, stable management, whims and vices, ailments and their remedies, harness hints, about stables, colts' education, care of the feet, etc. Many of the illustrations have been made from life. The book is handsomely printed and substantially bound in cloth. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

McLin-Richmond.

Blair McLin, a brother of J. McLin of this place, and Miss Mary Richmond, of Rose Hill, Va., were married at the Presbyterian church in that place; on Thursday, June 15. The attendants were Kitty Fulkerson and Tip Richmond, Annie Ely and John Richmond, Neal Beatty and Mr. Kelly, Miss Buchanan and Cecil McLin, Hattie McLin and John Beatty, Hattie Richmond and Robert Fulkerson. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Minnie Richmond. The bride and groom and attendants left for Old Point Comfort, Va., to spend a few days, after which the bridal couple will return to Jackson to reside, where Mr. McLin is engaged with C. Kelman.

The Farm Journal is cheap but not too cheap to be good; it is full of ginger and gumption, and has as many other good things in it that you can use as any paper at any price. It will be sent for the balance of 1899 and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years, to subscribers of THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD who pay one year in advance.

CONNAUGHT 2D 3512.

This celebrated English Hackney stallion imported to the United States on June 3, 1893, will make the season of 1899 at the stables of John H. Pieratt, at Hazel Green, Ky., at the extremely low price, blood and beauty considered, of $6 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT, Or $5 To Insure A Mare In Foal, money due when the fact is ascertained in either case. A lein on the colt will be retained for the season money, and in event the mare is traded off or bred to another horse the money will then be due. Every care will be taken to prevent accidents, but I will not be responsible should they occur.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.

CONNAUGHT 2ND, 3512 is a beautiful bay, full 16 hands high, black mane and tail, good style and action and a fine roadster, 9 years old this spring. He was sired by Victor of Beatty 1587; dam Bonnie 1925, by Highflyer 1006; Victor of Beatty 1587 by Reliance 667, grand dam by Congress 164; Reliance 667 by Confidence 158, dam by Rileman 670.

NOTE.—His complete pedigree covers many crosses of the thoroughbred and coach horse—but is too full to quote. Breeders are invited to call and see him and examine his pedigree at my stables. Respectfully, J. H. PIERATT.
